

WASHINGTON- Congressman Lee Terry (R-NE) has been recognized as a "True Blue" Member of Congress by FRC Action and Focus on the Family Action for his unwavering commitment to the family.

The award honors Members of Congress who have exhibited extraordinary leadership and commitment to the defense of family, faith, and freedom, according to FRC Action's scorecard covering House and Senator votes of the 110th Congress. Recipients of the award voted consistently for pro-life and pro-family issues.

"I am honored to receive the "True Blue" award. I believe our United States Constitution protects the rights of all individuals, born and unborn. I have a strong pro-life record and will continue to fight for rights of the unborn," said Congressman Lee Terry.

The votes included:

ü Defending Restrictions on Funding International Abortion Groups

ü Human Cloning Prohibition

ü Embryonic Stem Cell Research Enhancement Act

ü Thought Crimes Act

ü Protect Abstinence Program for HIV/AIDs Prevention

ü Funding D.C. Needle Exchange Program

ü Funding D.C. Gay Marriage Amendment

ü Restrict Funding Planned Parenthood
Amendment

ü Prohibit Implementing the
"Fairness Doctrine"

ü Exploit Indian Gaming Regulatory
Act

"The Members of the 110th Congress who received this award have been consistent,
stalwart allies of American

families," said FRC Action President
Tony Perkins.□

"These Members are to be commended for supporting public policy that values
human life,

protects our
religious liberties,
and upholds the institutions of marriage and the family."

